Since 1839, The Wynn House has enriched the lives of many in the Columbus Georgia area. It has served as a family home, center of community fellowship, and venue for momentous occasions.

Built by Colonel William Wynn and originally called Oakview, the home is Greek Revival in style, surrounded by Doric columns on three sides and is topped by a cupola.

The Cummings Memorial Garden is an additional treasure of the home.

DISCOVER THE JOY

Wynn House members and friends are dedicated to the mission of preserving this historic structure, which is on the National Register of Historic Places.

A united vision prevails to perpetuate use of this home for cultural and educational endeavors, and advancement of the importance of historic preservation. Join us and become a part of our mission. Help protect, sustain and share the historic elegance and charm of this region.
